DEFENDANTS

DECLARATION OF RON HRITZ

I, Ron Hritz, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am over the age of 18 years of age and have personal knowledge of the information stated in this Declaration.

2. I was employed as a police officer for over 27 years with the Springdale Police Department ("SPD"). I retired from the SPD in April of 2021. At the time of my retirement, I held the position of Captain. I am currently employed by the City of Springdale as a planning technician/inspector.

3. In May of 2015, I was a Captain over the Administrative Division, which included responsibilities for responding to Arkansas Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") requests.

4. On or about May 15, 2015, Abtin Mehdizadegan, an attorney with Cross, Gunter, Witherspoon & Galchus, P.C., sent a request to the SPD for certain records pursuant to the FOIA. The FOIA request was faxed to a shared fax machine with the City of Springdale, and erroneously routed to the incorrect SPD employee who was out of the office. As a result, the SPD was not aware of the FOIA request until May 19, 2015, following a phone call by Abtin Mehdizadegan that the request was due per Arkansas law.

5. On May 19, 2015, I advised then Chief Kathy O'Kelley that the SPD had received a FOIA for the SPD Offense Report and that the response may be past due.

6. On May 19, 2015, I provided a copy of the SPD Offense Report to Chief O'Kelley to read the document that night.

7. Also on May 19, 2015, I forwarded to Chief O'Kelley an email from a producer with NBC Universal/Access Hollywood to Sergeant Darrell Hignite. The email indicated that there was a tabloid article regarding sexual misconduct allegations against Josh Duggar. Sgt. Hignite was mentioned in the article as being involved in the investigation, and the article included a number of details of the investigation from the SPD Offense Report. A copy of the email is attached as Exhibit A.

8. Also on May 19, 2015, In Touch Weekly published a story regarding the allegations contained in the SPD Offense Report.

9. Chief O'Kelley instructed me and others with SPD not to release the report until she had an opportunity to discuss the FOIA request with the City Attorney, Ernest Cate. Chief O'Kelley also asked me to begin making redactions to the SPD Offense Report in the event that we were required to release the report and to provide the redactions to Ernest Cate to review.

10. Prior to release of the report, I was advised by Chief O'Kelley to notify the Duggar family of the FOIA request and that the SPD may be required to release a redacted version of the SPD Offense Report.

11. I spoke with Jim Bob Duggar on the morning of May 20, 2015 and advised him that SPD had received the FOIA request and that it may be required to release a redacted version of the SPD Offense Report.

12. Prior to release of the SPD Offense Report, Chief O'Kelley referred the matter to the City Attorney for an opinion as to whether the requested records were subject to public disclosure under the FOIA. As part of due diligence and in order to thoroughly analyze the request, Chief O'Kelley and Ernest Cate also contacted the Arkansas Municipal League, the Arkansas State Police, the Washington County Juvenile Prosecuting Attorney within the Washington County Prosecuting Attorney's Office and made unsuccessful attempts to contact appropriate officials within the Arkansas Department of Human Services.

13. Chief O'Kelley, Ernest Cate and I made multiple additional redactions prior to the release of the SPD Offense Report. We redacted all information that identified the victims.

14. On May 20, 2015, at approximately 9:00 p.m., Chief O'Kelley released a redacted version of the SPD Offense Report in response to Mehdizadegan's FOIA request. A true and correct copy of the SPD Offense Report is attached as Exhibit B.

15. Following release of the report, the City of Springdale was provided with orders from Judge Zimmerman in Washington County Circuit Court Case No. J 2007-38 ordering the destruction of the Police Report. The City of Springdale was not a party to this case and, prior to receipt of Judge Zimmerman's orders, the SPD was not aware of the existence of this case.

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT.

Good morning Captain Hudson,

I woke up from my nap and found this in my inbox. Looks like they Access Hollywood is running this story on Josh Dugger. I did not reply to this email. Looks like they are publishing my name in the article anyways.

Dear Sgt. Hignite,

Nice to meet you. I am fact checking a story for the NBC entertainment news television show "Access Hollywood" and I need your help.

An article about reality star Josh Duggar will come out in the magazine In Touch tomorrow. It is a piece that alleges that Josh was named in an underage sex probe shortly before 2005. In the article, In Touch names you as having been involved in Josh's case.

Can you confirm or deny this? Feel free to give me a statement as well.

Is there any way that we can get a police report or some sort of documentation that's tied to the case? (Names blacked out is okay.)

Would you be interested in doing an on-camera interview? I have pasted the article below my signature for your convenience.

Thank you.

Subject: IN TOUCH EXCLUSIVE: 19 KIDS AND COUNTING SON NAMED IN UNDERAGE SEX PROBE

[cid:3F27F773-EBF1-4BE3-A973-1A15A7208E9F]

EXCLUSIVE

19 KIDS AND COUNTING SON NAMED IN UNDERAGE SEX PROBE

Josh Duggar of the TLC hit reality show 19 Kids and Counting was named in a police report as the "alleged offender" in an underage sexual abuse probe, In Touch magazine is reporting exclusively.

The charge being pursued while Josh was a minor was sexual assault in the fourth degree. Multiple sources who have seen the police report and are familiar with the case told In Touch. According to the report, Josh was brought into the Arkansas State Police by his father, Jim Bob, who said he caught him leaving a young girl's bedroom and "learned something inappropriate happened," one source said.

A bizarre turn of events prevented police and prosecutors from finishing their investigation and possibly prosecuting. The state trooper who originally took the report about Josh shortly before 2005 never followed up. That state trooper was later convicted on child pornography charges and is serving a 56-year prison sentence.

When the state trooper ran into trouble, someone from the Arkansas State Police alerted the Child Abuse Hotline about the Duggar situation that had been sitting inactive. That's when the Crimes Against Children

Division and Springdale Police Department got involved. By then the three-year statute of limitations had passed and it would not have been possible to pursue prosecution of Josh if the allegations warranted, so the investigation was discontinued. "A technicality prevented any further action," a source familiar with the case told In Touch. "That's been the biggest regret in all of this." (The statute of limitations has since been lengthened.)

Sgt. Darrel Hignite — identified by multiple sources as the officer who led the investigation into the allegations about Josh — told In Touch: "I can't comment or discuss [this case] because of the sensitive nature and because it involved a juvenile."

Rumors about Josh have swirled for years but In Touch's investigation has uncovered the secret he has been hiding. "I saw and read the report and it clearly stated that Jim Bob brought his son Josh into the Arkansas State Police and spoke to a state trooper about Josh's involvement in alleged inappropriate touching with a minor," one source told In Touch.

The first report was filed shortly before 2005. Josh and his wife, Anna, have three children and live in Washington, D.C., where he is a lobbyist for the Family Research Council.

Det. Hignite made contact with Inv. Taylor about this incident. Inv. Taylor stated that [REDACTED] have arrived and a [REDACTED]

Det. Hignite asked how this report was disclosed. Inv. Taylor stated that an undisclosed person had written a letter approximately three and a half years ago describing an incident where the [REDACTED] had been sexually assaulting [REDACTED]. The undisclosed person placed the letter inside of a book. It is unknown who wrote the letter and Jim Bob and Michelle will not disclose who wrote the letter. The book was loaned out to a member of the Duggar's church and the letter was found.

The Duggar's had traveled to Chicago Illinois to appear on the Oprah show last week. The Oprah show had received an e-mail from a female that warned the show about the Duggar family.

The Harpo Studios had faxed the letter to the Department of Human Services Hot line. The report was then opened for investigation.

On Tuesday, 12/12/06, at approximately 9:45 AM, James and Michelle Duggar were interviewed at the Children's Safety Center in Springdale, Arkansas. The Duggars had brought [REDACTED] to the Safety Center to be interviewed in response to an allegation that had been received by the Arkansas State Police Child Abuse Hotline. The allegation was in regard to [REDACTED], fondling [REDACTED]

James said that in March of 2002, [REDACTED], who had just [REDACTED], came to him very upset and crying. James said that [REDACTED] had told him that [REDACTED] had been sneaking into [REDACTED] room at night and had been touching [REDACTED] on the breasts and vaginal areas while [REDACTED] were sleeping. (Apparently [REDACTED] were sleeping in a common room at this time.) [REDACTED] told James that this had occurred 4 to 5 times and had occurred once as one of [REDACTED] was sleeping on the couch. Apparently [REDACTED] had always been asleep when these incidents occurred. James said that when [REDACTED] later told [REDACTED] what had occurred, [REDACTED], [REDACTED], had said that [REDACTED] remembered one time when [REDACTED] woke up and [REDACTED] was taking [REDACTED] blanket away, but [REDACTED] did not remember anything else.

James said that in July of 2002, [REDACTED] admitted to him that one night as [REDACTED] was sleeping [REDACTED] had gone to the couch where [REDACTED] was sleeping and had fondled [REDACTED] breasts as [REDACTED] slept. [REDACTED] was later identified by James as [REDACTED]. James said that they disciplined [REDACTED] after this incident.

James said that about 9 months later, in March of 2003, there was another incident. James said that [REDACTED] was reading to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] was sitting on [REDACTED] lap, [REDACTED] had touched [REDACTED] breasts and vaginal area. James said that [REDACTED] then ran out of the room and called [REDACTED] and told [REDACTED] what [REDACTED] had done. James also said that sometime during this time frame, [REDACTED] had been standing in the laundry room and [REDACTED] had put [REDACTED] hand under [REDACTED] dress.

James said that after these incidents, he had met with the elders of his church and had told them what was going on. James said that they all agreed that [REDACTED] needed to be put into a treatment program. James said that one of the elders was a chaplain at the Piney Ridge program at Vista Hospital. James said that they had concerns about the program at Piney Ridge because they felt [REDACTED] might be exposed to other offenders and other things that they did not want him exposed to. James said that one of the elders was an ex-prison guard and told them that some of the programs for juveniles were finishing schools where juveniles learned how to offend from other offenders. James said that they found out about a Christian program in Little Rock which they felt more comfortable with. James said that he could not remember the name of the program, but that it was conducted by a Christian ministry in the old Veterans Hospital in Little Rock and the man who ran it was Harold Walker. James said that he thought that the program was affiliated with the Little Rock Police Department since they had a station in the same building. James said that the program consisted of hard physical work and counseling. James said that [REDACTED] was in the program from March 17, 2003 until July 17, 2003.

James and Michelle said that they were both comfortable that nothing had occurred since [REDACTED] went through the program in Little Rock. They both felt that [REDACTED] no longer had any problem and that all of this had been resolved. The Duggars said that [REDACTED] had apologized to [REDACTED] and that they had forgiven [REDACTED]. James said that several members of their church were aware of the situation and had been supportive of the family.

I asked the Duggars if they knew how this had come up at this time. They said that at the time these things occurred, a family friend who was aware of what had happened had written down in a letter what he knew of [REDACTED] actions with [REDACTED]. That letter had been placed in a book and had subsequently been forgotten about. Just recently the book had been loaned to someone else with the letter in it and the person who discovered the letter had called the hotline. The Duggars declined to identify who wrote the letter or who found it.

I asked the Duggars if any of this had ever been reported to the police. James said that he [REDACTED] had spoken to a State Trooper after [REDACTED] had returned from the program in Little Rock. James said that he knew a Cpl. Hutchins with the Arkansas State Police. James said that he knew Hutchins because he used to be a car dealer and Cpl.

Hutchins was the State Trooper who inspected car dealers. James said that after [REDACTED] returned from Little Rock, he and the church elders decided to contact the police about [REDACTED]. James said that one of the church elders, he and [REDACTED] had gone to Cpl. Hutchins office at the State Police headquarters and that [REDACTED] had admitted to Cpl. Hutchins what [REDACTED] had done. James said that Cpl. Hutchins gave [REDACTED] a very stern talk about might happen to [REDACTED] if [REDACTED] continued such behavior. James said that Cpl. Hutchins told [REDACTED] that since [REDACTED] had already put [REDACTED] through a treatment program, there was nothing else to do.

I asked the Duggars where they lived when all of this had occurred and they said that at that time, they lived at [REDACTED] in Springdale.

I explained to the Duggars that after [REDACTED] were interviewed, a detective would have to interview [REDACTED] and they had no problem with that. They indicated that they thought that [REDACTED] would be cooperative in any interview.

The interview was terminated at approximately 10:20 AM.

Inv. Taylor asked [REDACTED] if [REDACTED] goes to school. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] is home schooled. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] mother is the teacher. Inv. Taylor asked what [REDACTED] favorite subject in school was. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] likes spelling. Inv. Taylor asked what [REDACTED] least favorite subject was. [REDACTED] said it was math.

Inv. Taylor then asked if [REDACTED] knew why [REDACTED] was there for interview and if anyone talked with [REDACTED] about it. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] talked with [REDACTED] and explained to [REDACTED] why [REDACTED] was coming in for interview. Inv. Taylor asked [REDACTED] to tell [REDACTED] about it.

[REDACTED] stated that some things happened four years ago. Inv. Taylor asked what happened. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] in 2002 or 2003 had touched [REDACTED] improperly. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] was asleep in the living room and "half way" woke up. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] thought [REDACTED] needed a blanket. Inv. Taylor asked what happened. [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] was half asleep and did not remember. [REDACTED] said it happened four or five years ago. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] was in a chair in the living room. Inv. Taylor asked why [REDACTED] woke up. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] felt [REDACTED] trying to take [REDACTED] blanket. [REDACTED] said when [REDACTED] woke up and [REDACTED] dropped onto the floor. [REDACTED] said it happened sometime during the night. [REDACTED] said no-one else was in the room. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] clothes were on. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] clothes were also on.

[REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] did not know what [REDACTED] was doing until later. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] and then [REDACTED] later confessed to what [REDACTED] had done. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] confessed that [REDACTED] did some things wrong.

[REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] confessed to [REDACTED] and the elders of their church on March 30th, 2003. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] was then sent to Little Rock to a training center. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] did manual labor and had Christian Counseling.

Inv. Taylor asked [REDACTED] what [REDACTED] told their parents. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] did not know. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] later spoke to the victims [REDACTED] and asked for forgiveness for touching [REDACTED] improperly. Inv. Taylor then asked if [REDACTED] knew why [REDACTED] was there for interview and if anyone talked with [REDACTED] about it. [REDACTED] said that it was over something that happened four years ago. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] had apologized to [REDACTED] for what [REDACTED] had done four years ago. [REDACTED] then stated that it all came out because of a letter.

Inv. Taylor asked [REDACTED] to start from the beginning. [REDACTED] said that it happened when [REDACTED] was asleep. [REDACTED] said that approximately three and a half to four years ago [REDACTED] parents got a phone call from Jim Bob and Michelle. [REDACTED] said they told [REDACTED] parents that they needed to talk with them. [REDACTED] said that later [REDACTED] and the Duggars came and apologized to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] touched [REDACTED] while [REDACTED] was sleeping. [REDACTED] said it only happened one time.

Inv. Taylor asked where this happened. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] was in the living room sleep on the Duggar's couch. [REDACTED] said that everyone was home when it happened. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] were in their room. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] can remember when [REDACTED] spent the night with the Duggars but not the assault. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] was told that [REDACTED] was touching [REDACTED] on the breasts... [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] had not been around [REDACTED] since the incident.

Inv. Taylor asked [REDACTED] how the report came out. [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] was told that someone wrote a letter about the incident and put it inside of a book. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] heard that someone found the letter and disclosed something.

[REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] apologized to [REDACTED] over the phone. [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] was in Little Rock and asked [REDACTED] to forgive [REDACTED] for what [REDACTED] had done.
